The screenshot shows the homepage for angel investors. At the top, there's a banner with three photos: two people shaking hands and one person holding a trophy. Below the banner, the text "get your business moving..." is displayed. The navigation menu includes Home, About Us, Resources, For Angels, For Entrepreneurs, and News. On the left, a sidebar lists "For Angel Investors" categories: Membership Criteria, Our Members, Individual Responsibility, Membership Process, and Participation Criteria. The main content area describes the service as a fast, convenient, secure, and confidential tool for angels to identify investment opportunities. It mentions the use of AngelSoft technology and New York Angel network.

The screenshot shows the homepage for entrepreneurs. The layout is similar to the angel investor page, with a banner at the top featuring three photos. The main text "get your business moving..." is present. The navigation menu includes Home, About Us, Resources, For Angels, For Entrepreneurs, and News. The main content area for entrepreneurs discusses the role of angel investors in funding early-stage companies. It highlights the variety of angels, ranging from sophisticated to less experienced. The text emphasizes the frustration of dealing with "smart money" and the importance of making the process smooth and successful. It also encourages users to read the section for more information.
